

HOMES TO THE PERSECUTED AND DISPLACED

House of Mercy
& Peace
Project

Quest to give adequate accommodation to the persecuted refugees as a result of what is the “greatest exodus in history”.

PURPOSE

Our purpose is to build homes for the displaced and supplying them with basic needs, such as food, medicine and blankets and to support those escaping persecution and injustice.

VISION

Our objective is to offer a new dignified life to as many families as possible, few at a time, by helping them to move from extreme poverty, hopelessness, and abuse to a safe place.

YOUR HELP MAKES A DIFFERENCE. WHO WILL ACT IF WE DO NOT?

We need your help to support and to locate individuals who can support this greatest humanitarian crisis of the century. Today, the cost for each apartment is $18,720. Together we can provide homes and offer a new life to 250 families, women, elderly and children.

PHASE ONE: $4,792,500

- To construct 250 homes, and move out the displaced from extreme poverty and despair to hope.
- To construct the first section, of a school for elementary to 6th grade for displaced children. We cannot have again an entire generation that misses education.
- To offer professional help in the healing of traumas that many have received, particularly children and women, and also men.

PHASE TWO

- To construct another 230 homes and extend good education to children from 6th to 12th grade.
- To partner with people, with concern for the Middle East, to continue long term support in this region, by building local communities and generating jobs related to construction and creating short term industries.

CIVI AFFILIATES ENSURE INTEGRAL SERVICE

In collaboration with the Chaldean Catholic Church and other major partners in the Middle East, Caritas in Veritate International (CIVI), an international confederation of Catholic organizations operating in more than 85 countries, with 800 leaders, more than 145,000 of volunteers—brings two decades of experience addressing extreme poverty, social injustice, and lack of freedom, by bringing integral human development to all people.
